NARRATIVE
Today 4/8/2021 at noon going toward Shelton to father's house from Steamboat Is RD NW. Vehicle started knocking, new light on dash. Check engine dash said overheating; turn off AC/idle. Pulled over side of road before HWY around Old Hwy 101. Popped hood only from inside via lever then use hand under hood to hold up. [All should have prints.] Noticeable transparent liquid and steam from engine. notice battery cover broken, battery terminal exposed. liquid coming from hose. Call dad, Richard Turner 360-712-3792 12:26PM side of road told about car; agree to drive home; cannot make sister's BDAY, Kimberly Turner and Dirk Dekker family friend left voicemail 12:30PM; 360-786-5500 Thurston Co Sheriff's Office 12:35PM - OK to drive home. Alive at home 1PM talked to next door neighbor old couple about EMERGENCY. Big white truck (ext cab?), clean, looks new, sounded V8/Hemi, across street individual observing inside when called 911 1:04PM. Neighbor gave security light to use motion sensor. Truck drove off promptly after. TAMPERING IS EVIDENT AND DAMAGE OCCURRED! NOT driving due to risk of fire / death and I will not put it under car port or near flammables. [Prints should still be inside.] CAR locked, windows up one key-fob [other stolen in 2018 at The Society / Room 120 barside; suspects were employee: Jon Saling, Alex Bosi or Melissa Passmore from Shelton know I live on Steamboat] Car on my property in driveway -- NO TRESPASSING SIGN, was parked next to my bedroom/under covered parking area when VANDALISM occurred. Nothing unusual last night nor did I allow anyone on or near my property. NO other keys to my place and NO access to my car key.

Monday car was UNTAMPERED, at Courthouse in town majority of day. Crime took place within last 24 hours. Neighbors said didn't see anyone on property.
Spoke to Sheriff Private Number (incoming) 2:07PM 10 mins. Said NO evidence as fingerprinting won't do anything but keep car away from house. NOT coming out but report online.
